

T U R K E Y

15 April 1963

DISMANTLING OF JUPITER MISSILES STARTED

Sofia BEA in English to Europe 0624 GMT 12 April 1963--L

(Text) Ankara--Dismantling has started of the Jupiter missiles on Turkish territory. The paper MILLIYET said yesterday. According to the same paper, the main parts of these installations are to go back to the United States, while auxiliary parts are to be stored at the Chigli air force base near the town of Izmir.

TWO BULGARIAN TOURISTS SEEK ASYLUM

Nicosia Domestic Service in Turkish 1730 GMT 13 April 1963--M

(Text) The Istanbul police announced today that two Bulgarian tourists who had left the Bulgarian passenger ship, Georgi Dimitrov, have asked Turkish authorities to grant them political asylum.

SHIPPING WARNED OF DANGEROUS AREA

Ankara Domestic Service in Turkish 17-5 GMT 13 April 1963--M

(Text) Communique No. 31 to shipping and aviation:

Notice is hereby given that shipping and aviation, laying anchor, and fishing in the sea off Ereğli on the Black Sea will be dangerous to life and property, up to a height of 1,500 meters from 15 to 18 April 1963 between 0900 and 1700 hours within the area bounded by the following four points:

1--The (Yenice--phonetic) lighthouse.

2--Latitude 41 degrees 26 minutes north, longitude 31 degrees 41 minutes east.

3--Latitude 41 degrees 32 minutes north, longitude 31 degrees 19 minutes east.

4--Latitude 41 degrees 22 minutes north, longitude 31 degrees 13 minutes east. The danger of the area is to be lifted on 18 April 1963.